EVERMAY, Mclean, VA

Known as “The Admiral”™s House, this stately all-brick Colonial sits on a quiet street in the prized Evermay neighborhood, admired for its mature trees, large lots, and its walkability. This exceptional property presents a rare opportunity to own one of Evermay™s signature homes and make it your own. Built by Gene May in 1974, the residence offers just over 6,500 square feet of living space with five bedrooms, with four having walk-in closets, and four full baths. Freshly painted interiors complement a traditional floor plan featuring elegant formal rooms, including a spacious living room, dining room, library/office, and family room open to the kitchen with updated appliances. The expansive partially finished lower level™with hookups for a potential second kitchen™is ready to be customized to suit your lifestyle. Evermay offers a serene residential setting just minutes from downtown McLean and Tysons. Its prime location provides easy access to the George Washington Parkway, Washington, D.C., and walking distance to Potomac School, making it one of McLean™s most desirable enclaves.

Built in 1974
